Since WOMAA has World Title Belts for Continuous Fighting, we are instituting the WOMAA Black Belt Point Fighting World Title Belt. instead of just a Grand Championship prize. All 1st Place winners from the Adult Black Belt point fighting and Master's Point Fighting divisions will run off to the top two (there will be a men's belt and a women's belt). The top two, as usual, will go into the Grand Championship Finals and the winner in each division will earn the WOMAA World Title Belt for Point Sparring. As with the Continuous World Title Belt, there will be 3 two minute rounds for the Black Belt Point Fighting World Title Belt. (Note: Competitors must have had at least one fight in their division to be eligible for the Grand Run off. You cannot be eligible if you won your division by being the only one in it). Exhibition Fights also do not count. If there is no one in your division you may opt to move up a division and forfeit the medal for the division that had no other competitors in it, so you may have a fight to qualify for the World Title Belt.

Ring Sports (Full Contact and K-1 Competitors) are not eligible to compete for the Continuous or Point Fighting World Title Belts. If they are just competing in Ring Sports Divisions, unless they have competed in a Point or continuous sparring division also and won.

All WKS competitors are encouraged to also compete in the regular WOMAA Divisions.

WKS divisions are being hosted by the World Karate Society.

Note: Plans are to split into Novice, Intermediate and senior in the Kumite, depending on entry numbers. The split will be done on the day of the events.
